Konu: Re: IMP pairs in verona

Dear Ata,

There is no ambiguity other than this creates by jealousy apparently.

The IMP pairs have been advertised on the brochure as a new World Championship and not as a consolation of any kind (same in the Condition of Contest).

The fact that the final did get the same format than the Open pairs speaks for itself and authorizing part (about 20) of the semi final losers to enter in this contest was a reward.

Your people are World Champions and World Life Master and we will publish it immediately

Kind regards

José Damiani

Dear Mr Damiani,

As you know, a Turkish Pair Tezcan SEN - Okay GUR won the IMP Pairs Championship recently in Verona.

We, The Turkish Bridge Federation, were unsure about the exact context of this victory. Hence we asked Anna Gudge about whether the winners of the IMP Pairs tournament will be awarded World Titles or not. Having received the positive reply from Anna (seen hereunder), we have announced in the Official TBF website (www.tbricfed.org.tr) that Tezcan Sen and Okay Gür are "World Champions".

However, we have been approached by many of our members who claim that the IMP Pairs championship was "just a consolation event" (for players eliminated out of the Open Pairs Tournament).

They support their arguments with the following facts:

- It is NOT mentioned on the WBF page <http://www.worldbridge.org/tourn/Verona.06/Information.htm> that the winners of the IMP Pairs event will get world titles.
- The IMP Pairs tournament is NOT mentioned on the page, <http://www.worldbridge.org/competitions/worldchampionships/worldchampionships.asp> as one of the tournaments where world titles are awarded to the winners
- Finally it is mentioned in the WBF web-page that all World Champions will get the World Life Master WLM Title. But Tezcan Sen and Okay Gür have still not been awarded this title.

All of the above create ambiguity and leave the TBF in difficulties in providing the correct and firm answers to the inquirers.

Hence, I kindly request you to clarify the following points:

- Are Tezcan Sen and Okay Gür official WBF World Champions?
- Do they hold the title of World Life Masters?
- If yes, when will these facts be announced on the WBF Webpages.

Your earliest reply will be highly appreciated.

Many thanks and kind regards
 Ata AYDIN
